

WE WANT THE TIME

Merchants of Main Street Interviewed and Express Themselves Freely.

IN THE NEW OFFICE BUILDING.

Present and Future Growth of City Demands Correct Time.

Not long since this paper contained frequent articles in regard to having a correct time keeper in the new office building on Main street, now in process of erection.

Persons doing business on Main street expressed themselves freely and were agreed that it was a necessity of the day and would be somewhat in keeping with the growth of the city.

Afterwards the information was published that the men who are putting their money into the big building would, at their own expense, build a tower for the location of a clock if the City Council would buy the clock and have it put in, but as the Council has never been approached in the matter, it of course, has not taken any action whatever—in fact, it has never been considered by the Council as a body or as individuals.

But men of enterprise, who are watching with keenest interest the rapid growth of Hopkinsville and the increase in all departments of business, do not let such things escape their attention. They realize that the future has in store great things for our people and that we must build for the future as well as the day. They are the men that make villages develop into towns and towns grow into cities. As a man remarked this week, "We have mighty few men now who are not enterprising and don't care whether the town grows or not." That is a fact.

Another citizen, who sees a great future for Hopkinsville, said Tuesday, "We are just beginning really to grow. The town is bound to keep it up. Our environment forces the growth." It is just as natural for Hopkinsville to grow as a healthy boy—you can't stop him, because he was created to be a man. Hopkinsville is destined to be much larger than she now is.

Anent the clock proposition, we will say that the clock is needed and wanted. We are warranted in making this assertion. A representative of this paper has interviewed the merchants quoted below. Every merchant we saw, with one exception, was of the opinion that a correct time keeper is needed.

It is probable that the matter will soon be laid before the City Council, and that the city authorities may have a basis for action. Below we give just what the merchants have said. They are the words of business men and are worthy of consideration. Every man spoken to is included in the list but one, and another who sees the need of a clock, but thinks that it should be in a city building. We have withheld nothing. Here is what they say:

C. R. Clark.—It would be a good thing and we need it badly.

T. W. Long, Cashier 1st National Bank.—I believe it would be a good thing. Being behind time 2 minutes in going to a train some times means a whole day.

L. M. Greany, manager of Kress' store.—I think it would be a great thing, and something we need and should be connected with the Western Union wire.

M. L. Elb.—Would be a fine thing. J. O. Cook.—Would be mighty nice. Averitt-Stowe Drug Co.—Think we need it badly. A fine place for it, Renshaw & Harton.—A grand idea, and heartily in favor of it.

Black Hardware Co.—Would be a

LANDSCAPE ARCHITECTS

Are Engaged To Come October 18th To Plat the Parks.

NOTED IN THEIR LINE.

Park Committee Will Spare No Pains To Have Work Done Well.

The Park Committee has engaged the noted landscape gardeners, Olmsted Bros., of Brookline, Mass., to have charge of the preliminary work of laying out Virginia and Peace Parks. Their Mr. Dawson will arrive about Oct. 1st to look over the parks and confer with the committee. These architects are highly recommended by Gen. John B. Castleman, Chairman of the Park Commission of Louisville. They have had charge of the Louisville park system for 21 years and have built the park systems of Louisville, Boston, Buffalo, Central Park, N. Y., and other similar great works. Gen. Castleman says of them: "These people know and foresee and they make no mistakes, they are great men engaged in a great business, contributing wonderfully to the beauty of the country and the happiness of the human family."

After Mr. Dawson has looked over the parks he will discuss with the committee their permanent improvement and the character of buildings to be erected on them.

great convenience and would be glad to hear it strike, Hugh McShane.—In favor of it and would be glad to see it.

Sam Frankel.—If we had a city clock connected with the Western Union it would be a good thing, and we have needed it.

Wall & McGowan.—We have needed a town clock on Main street for a long while.

Coates Drug Co.—It would be an ideal place for a city clock.

J. H. Anderson & Co., John H. Bell, Manager.—Would be a great convenience to everybody.

Planters Hardware Co.—Very desirable and would be great.

D. G. Edwards, Gen. Manager Christian-Todd Telephone Co.—A city with the future before it that Hopkinsville has cannot afford to be without a city time piece.

Harry Yost, of the F. A. Yost Co.—I think it would be a good thing and would like to see it.

J. K. Twyman.—It would add more to the appearance of the town than anything I know of.

L. E. Fowler, of the Anderson-Fowler Drug Co.—I am willing to ask the City Council to maintain a clock in this end of town for the benefit of the public. It is the best building in which to locate it.

Irving Roseborough Co.—I am heartily in favor of it and we need it.

Harry Keach, of the Keach Furniture Co.—Yes, we need it; and I would just like to see a great big dial up there with long hands, so it could be read 'way off yonder.

RUSH OF MEMBERS

Fourteen New Elks Are Awaiting Initiation.

The Elks are still having a boom in new members. At the weekly meeting Tuesday night two new applications were received and referred, four were reported favorably and 14 candidates were elected. Five were initiated—Messrs. E. G. Guill, Buck Boxley, Warren C. Sights, Randolph Dade, Jr., and S. H. Horner, all young men of the finest character.

SENATOR RIVES

In Serious Condition From Operation at Nashville.

Former Senator Frank Rives, who has been ill for several days, was taken to Nashville Tuesday to be operated on for appendicitis. Mrs. Rives and his sister, Mrs. Dr. J. L. Barker, of Pembroke, accompanied him. Mr. Rives was operated on yesterday about noon and was reported in a very serious condition.

15 LOTS SOLD

At Auction by Thompson & Mallory, Aggregating $3,700.

The sale of lots yesterday by Thompson & Mallory was not so largely attended as might have been had not a drizzling rain set in just before the time for the sale to begin.

The bidding on the 12 lots fronting the Nashville pike 1½ miles from the city was quite spirited. Each lot contains two acres and the first lot sold brought $360, the second $275. The top price was $400, No. 3. The bottom price was $215, Nos. 11 and 12. The aggregate for these 12 lots was $3,700. Three lots back of the 12, containing one acre each, were sold for $170 a whole.

The above were the only lots sold as the prices bid on the back section of the property were unreasonably low and the sale was stopped indefinitely. The property, as is generally known, is part of the old Henry place, on the Nashville pike.

AT HEBRON CHURCH

Services In The Morning And Afternoon Saturday.

Next Saturday morning at 11 o'clock Rev. G. W. Lyon will preach his last sermon before Conference meets at Morganfield on the 25th inst.

In the afternoon, at 3 o'clock, Rev. P. H. Davis will preach at Hebron church. The people of the neighborhood are invited to attend both services.

LOCAL PARAGRAPHS

It rained so heavily Tuesday night that the First Regiment Band could not give its free concert at the court house.

There are many guesses coming as to who will succeed John Chilton as Master Commissioner. The fall term of Judge Hanbery's court begins Monday.

John Winfree had a gold watch stolen this week. The watch was taken from his coat pocket while no one was in the office. The police are "on the watch" for it.

Don't forget, even if September does bring frost sometimes, that the seasons this year have all been out of place, and that we "used to" have mighty hot weather in October.

An order has been issued by Manager Ewing that in many important counties in the black patch the time has been extended for closing the books of the Planters Association.

The tobacco crop in this county has been about all cut and housed, and farmers are getting ready to begin fallowing for next year's wheat crop, some of them having already begun.

There's a whole lot of work going on at Hotel Latham now. The contractors for putting in a new heating plant are pushing the work rapidly in order to get through before cool weather arrives.

Before the drouth was broken we came nearer having a butter famine than for many years. The pastures were about dried out and flies worried cows so greatly that they fell off terribly in milk.

There is a great deal of terrazzo work being done at McLean College.

FOOTBALL

Four High Schools Arrange For Independent Games.

The Western Kentucky Athletic Association, composed of high schools, has been dissolved for this season and Owensboro, Madisonville, Hopkinsville and Paducah have arranged an independent schedule for football games as follows: Oct. 26—Owensboro at Paducah. Nov. 2—Paducah at Hopkinsville. Nov. 9—Madisonville at Paducah. Henderson is not in the schedule this time.

STARVING GIRLS.

Isolated In Nicaraguan City And American Marines Will Relieve Famine.

Washington, Sept. 18.—American bluejackets and marines have been called upon by Minister Weitzel in Nicaragua to rescue from famine a college full of girls at Granada. The girls have been isolated for forty days and are facing an empty larder. The college is under French control and many of the its inmates are foreign residents.

The American Minister appealed to Admiral Southerland, of the American fleet, to send a rescue party with some of the food supplies sent by the Red Cross from the canal zone.

GRADED SCHOOLS

Are Organized At Earlington After Hot Fight.

Earlington, Ky., Sept. 18.—The fight to establish a graded school district with its center at Earlington and to continue and improve the splendid school that has been maintained here for many years, was won Saturday by a majority of fifty-three. There were 645 votes cast—349 for and 296 against the graded school tax. Trustees were elected as follows: Dr. A. O. Sisk, Paul M. Moore, E. L. Wise, W. E. Rash, Ernest Newton.

TIME MAY BE EXTENDED.

Books of Association May Be Kept Open Ten Days Longer

IN SOME OF THE COUNTIES

On Account of Cutting and Housing Many Growers Unable to Attend Meetings.

—Cedar Hill, Tenn., Sept. 16, 1912.—Notice is hereby given officials, members and friends of the Planters' Protective Association that on account of the impossibility (with the assistance available) for soliciting the territory properly for members, a number of very important counties having had practically no work, and on account of growers signifying their inability to attend meetings where the affairs of the Association were to be discussed because of being busily engaged in cutting and housing tobacco, I have canvassed the Directors to ascertain their views as to whether the membership books should close as heretofore understood on September 21st or not. The result is a decision to keep the books open in a number of counties at least until the assembling of the new Board of Directors on October 1st. It is understood that each County Committee uses its judgment about closing the membership lists, such as favor continuing the campaign doing so, and those who think that every grower of tobacco has had sufficient opportunity to sign can close the campaign in their respective counties for the season.

If there is not sufficient tobacco pledged by October 1st to warrant a continuance of the Association it will be through no lack of effort of the management, which in addition to doubling the price of tobacco has kept all conditions and events of whatever nature affecting the Association squarely and candidly in view of growers of tobacco, but if there be failure to continue the Association the responsibility will rest upon growers themselves who indifferently turn a deaf ear to the appeals for assistance and admonitions to carry their part of the labor and responsibility of sustaining an Association. It is a conspicuous fact worthy of most thoughtful consideration that in counties where growers are not themselves throwing the scotch in front of the wheel instead of behind it there would be no difficulty getting any reasonable per cent to sign the pledge.

In one county the proposition is urged of having a sixty per cent provision which could not be considered because it had not been so resolved by the Board of Directors and made applicable to all counties. But the remarkable and unfortunate part about this affair is that if the gentlemen who are dwelling upon the sixty per cent idea would devote themselves by the same effort to get every grower in the county to sign the pledge it is almost a certainty that there would be no difficulty about getting 70 or 75 per cent to sign. It is highly important for these gentlemen to appreciate the fact that it would be much the best for the Association to be a great success than just a sufficient promise of success to gain their consent to enlist. Such attitude exemplifies the difference between being a member of the Association and expecting others, anybody else, than one's self, to make a success of it, and every fellow putting his shoulder to the wheel or grasping a hard line to make failure impossible over a perilous part of the journey by a long pull, a strong pull and a pull altogether.

The full measure of success for the Association needs never to be expected until tobacco growers realize that an army composed entirely of

SHOOTING AT OVIL

John Williams Was Wounded By Charles West Yesterday About Noon.

DETAILS WERE NOT LEARNED

Sheriff And Deputy Went To The Scene To Arrest West.

John Williams, aged 35, a farmer of the Ovill neighborhood, was shot and seriously wounded about noon yesterday, by Charlie West, aged 24, of the same vicinity. Details could not be learned, as the phone was out of order after the first report was made to Sheriff Johnson. The Sheriff and Deputy Herbert Johnson left for the scene. Williams is a cousin of Chas. T. Williams, the Ovill merchant, and is regarded as a quiet peaceable man. West has been in troubles of various kinds before. Williams was shot in the hip, the ball ranging upward.

The Council.

The Council held a called meeting Monday night and heard a protest from the liverymen against the too rigid enforcement of the street ordinance in regard to vehicles in the street. A change was made in the construction of the law, intended to adjust the trouble. An executive session afterwards considered some important matters which were carried over till the regular meeting tomorrow night.

officers would be doomed to failure at the start. It requires soldiers to make an army, and it requires interested helpful members to make a successful tobacco association, notwithstanding the management must be strong, thoughtful and conservative. The question is now squarely up to growers for their own solution. If they desire a strong Association they must make it, as it cannot otherwise be made. Will they do it before it is eternally too late? The management has done its duty faithfully and well. Very little time remains in any event.

Yours truly,
F. G. EWING,
General Manager.

TELEPHONE NOTICE.

Hopkinsville, Ky., Sept. 17, 1912. The policy adopted by the Christian-Todd Telephone Company, Incorporated, in collecting its bills is this: On the first of each month all bills become due for service rendered for the previous month, and should be paid at the office of the Company on or before the 10th of the succeeding month for which said service has been rendered. Failure to pay same, the service will be discontinued, without further notice, until bill is paid.

The discontinuing of the subscriber's service for non-payment is not a matter of doubt that he will not pay his telephone bill, but only a matter of system in collecting. There will be no personal favors shown along this line.

It will be the policy of the new Company to give more efficient service than either of the old Companies heretofore have given, after the confusion of putting the two pants together is over.

The co-operation of the public will be appreciated in doing its part to make the service equalled by few, and excelled by none.

Thanking you in behalf of the old Companies for your past patronage, and assuring you that a continuance of same will be appreciated, we remain, Yours very truly,

JUST HABIT OF OBSERVATION

Wonderful Feats of Trailing, Which Excite So Much Interest, Are Thus Explained.

The truth is, that without a knowledge of woodcraft one would soon perish in the wilderness, and woodcraft is simply Sherlock Holmes work applied to wild life, a matter of observation and deduction, writes Dan Beard in Leslie's. If a man finds a lot of hair adhering to a trunk of a tree he knows it did not grow there and he is safe in assuming that no man took the trouble to stick it there. Thus he arrives at the conclusion that some animal has been scratching itself on the tree.
But in order to tell what animal has been there he must be familiar with the hair belonging to all the inhabitants of that section. Not until then can he say that a deer, a moose, a puma or a wolf, as the case may be, rubbed its side against the tree trunk. Of course, if there's snow on the ground the tracks of the animal will aid him in identifying the creature. Again, if the day is absolutely calm and the sun is shining and he notes that the dead leaves have been displaced and their damp sides turned uppermost or that the damp sides of the pebbles are exposed, he reasons that they have recently been disturbed and concludes that some animal disturbed the leaves or pebbles.
In fact all the apparently wonderful feats of trailing are based primarily upon a trained habit of observation.

THE AMERICAN

THIS election is of supreme importance to you. The whole country is divided. On one side the progressive Insurgents, on the other the Conservative Standpaters. Both parties will promise many things. You will have to judge their claims and their fitness to carry them out. In these stirring times

It is necessary to the busy man or woman who values being up to date. In a hundred ways its editorials, its character sketches and its timely articles will help you make your choice. It gives you the best, clearest and most accurate, non-partisan and unprejudiced news that money can buy. Technical World Magazine is the one magazine that not only entertains in a fascinating manner, but which also instructs. It is the magazine for the busy business man, or for the person who wants to kill away a summer's afternoon, and be agreeably informed at the same time. It is profusely illustrated, and tells in a simple and interesting way of the discoveries of scientists, the achievements of inventors, the feats of engineers and explorers, and the opening of every new field of human endeavor. What Jack London says—"I have just chanced upon my first copy of TECHNICAL WORLD MAGAZINE. There isn't anything like it. I want more, and I cannot wait for them to come, so I am sending you herewith check for which please enter my subscription and send me immediately the last two years' back numbers."

Third—

CANNING AND JELLY MAKING

Some of the Necessary Utensils and a Few Rules That Should Be Observed.

The following utensils are necessary for all kinds of preserving: A 10 or 12 quart porcelain lined kettle, a white enameled ladle, a long handled spoon, a wide mouthed funnel, a colander, several pans, paring knives, a wooden masher, scales and one or two cloth bags through which to strain the jelly. If many jars are to be filled, a clothes boiler will be convenient for sterilizing them.

Have a rack in the bottom of the boiler, and on it place jars and covers, and completely cover them with cold water. Bring the water slowly to the boiling point and boil for twenty minutes. Have fresh rubbers and scald them by dipping them in the boiling water. The most important thing to remember is that every utensil must be perfectly clean, and no dust which can be prevented shall be allowed to rise during the time of putting the fruit in the jars. Great care must be taken in filling the jars. Do not take them from the boiling water and set them on a cold table, or in a draft; otherwise they will crack and sometimes break. A break is often better than a crack, as a crack sometimes is so small that it escapes one's notice until the jar falls apart and the contents are lost. Also care must be taken to have the syrup boiling, and to fill the jars completely, even to overflowing.—Good Housekeeping Magazine.

FRAPPES THAT ARE DELICIOUS

Tea, Coffee and Chocolate Are Three of the Easiest Made from Beverages.

Tea Frappe—Boil one cupful of sugar and two cupfuls of water for five minutes to make a syrup. Add one pint of fairly strong tea, freshly made and cooled, then the grated rind and juice of three oranges, the juice of two lemons and one can of grated pineapple. Freeze in a freezer if desired, or turn into a mold, cover the top with paraffin paper or buttered paper, place a cover on it tightly, and pack in a mixture of equal parts of salt and ice for three hours. Remove from the mold and garnish with slices of lemon or crushed mint leaves, dusted with powdered sugar.

Coffee Frappe—Make coffee the strength desired, strain it carefully and cool and sweeten to taste, then place it in a mold and pack as for all frappes. One cupful of cream may be added before packing, if desired. Garnish with whipped cream in serving.

Chocolate or Cocoa Frappe—Make chocolate or cocoa as if for a beverage, add for four cupfuls, one teaspoonful of vanilla and one cupful of strong, clear coffee. Freeze in a freezer or mold in ice and salt. Serve in tall sherbet glasses and garnish with whipped cream.

Stuffed Eggs and Rice.

Hard-boil six eggs, remove the shells and cut them in halves. Take out the yolks and make a paste of them, adding a teaspoon of melted butter, three sardines mashed, one-half teaspoon of salt and a little paprika. Mix and form into balls and fill in each half of the whites. Have ready some hot boiled rice on a dish and sink the 12 halves into it symmetrically to form an attractive design. Place the dish over hot water while you rub together two teaspoons of butter and two teaspoons of flour, a cup of milk, a cup of stock and seasoning. When this has boiled pour over all and garnish with parsley. Serve very hot.

Lemon Sponge.

Soak one tablespoon of granulated gelatin in one-quarter cup of cold water; when soft add one cup of boiling water, one cup of sugar and one-third cup of lemon juice. Stir until dissolved, strain and set aside to cool. Stir the mixture occasionally until frothy, add the beaten whites of three eggs and continue beating until stiff. Serve with custard sauce.

Custard Sauce—Beat the yolks of three eggs until light, add one-half teaspoon of salt and one pint of hot milk. Cook until thick, flavor with one teaspoon of vanilla and chill.—Mrs. H.

Vermicelli Soup.

Blanch six ounces of vermicelli by setting it on the fire in cold water; when it boils drain the water and put it into cold water; let it remain a few minutes, then drain the water entirely from it; put it into a pan with two quarts fresh milk and boil it; beat up the yolks of four eggs and after gradually adding a pint of boiled cream, strain through a sieve and add one tablespoon mushroom catsup; take off the pan, add the eggs, a small lump of white sugar, a teaspoon of salt and stir over the fire till near boiling.

Raw Coconut Is Best.

Purchase the raw nut rather than the desiccated coconut. It is easily put through the food cutter, and if the finest knife is used it gives a more easily digested article for cakes or candies than the dried product. If more is ground than can be used mix sugar with it and dry. It will keep indefinitely.

Racy Chicken Sandwich.

Use the white meat of the chicken only; after rubbing the chopping bowl with an onion, chop in the chicken meat. Season well with paprika, stir into it a little chicken stock, then sufficient amount of mayonnaise and prepare as any other sandwich.

FLOATED TO THE NEW SITE

Village of Provincetown Was Put on Rafts and Moved Across the Bay.

Commercial street in Provincetown had an origin in keeping with its present nautical air and appeal to the imagination. The town originally stood on the spit of sand far out across the harbor, where the light-house now is. Many years ago the government bought Provincetown, houses and all, in order to protect the harbor from the threatening sea. The Provincetownians went to the government and asked what they were going to do with the houses.

"Pull 'em down, of course," said the government.

"Can't we have 'em?" inquired the late owners.

"Sure," replied the government, "if you'll take 'em away."

"Sure!" echoed the Provincetownians.

Old wreckers that they were, they applied their technic to the problems of housemoving. They bulkheaded their dwellings up, necklaced empty casks about them in the way of life-preservers, and one sunny morning the village of Provincetown, true to its maritime traditions, set sail, schoolhouse and all, and came floating gayly across the harbor to where it now stands. Near the railway track today they point out a certain store as the original seafaring school-house.—Robert Haven Schaffer in the Metropolitan Magazine.

HOW NATURE LEADS US ON

After the Courtship Dreams With Their Bright Hues Come the Babies' Future Dreams.

Love is an illusion. Some seem to take it as a bitter thing that after the honeymoon the married pair settle down to the humdrum of everydayness. But, in the first place, they never quite become entirely disillusioned. The stain of the rainbow lingers in the average marriage, and in the second place, even if this illusion passes, another comes, for there are the children, and lover and lass who once dreamed of each other now are father and mother and must dream of the babies' future.

Illusions are Nature's device for getting things done. That is why she fills young men so full of illusions as to their own power. Heaven help us if young people knew precisely what they could do! They would do nothing at all.

And if girls knew just what marriage was going to be, and all their future down to the grave, they would never marry. Illusions are Nature's bait.

Life itself is progressive illusion: "Mala" the Hindus call it.

And we are not poor dupes. Nature is not cheating us, and sneering at us while she is leading us on in love, as we lead our little children.—Dr. Frank Crane in Woman's World

The Smoking Mountain.

In 1897 I climbed two volcanoes in Mexico—Popocatepetl or "the Smoking Mountain," about 17,800 feet, and Orizaba, the former the most famous because within view from Mexico City and thus a source of especial pride and admiration to the inhabitants, who have been loath to believe that any other of their mountains could be higher. Popo has a really splendid crater, about half a mile across and one thousand feet deep. The walls are generally vertical, but in one or two places it is possible to descend. When workers are engaged in collecting sulphur, machinery is used to hoist them up and down. From Popo's summit there is a glorious prospect, not alone of the immense crater, but of the beautiful "White Lady," Ixtacchuatl, reclining a thousand feet below; of Orizaba on the far horizon, and of the charming valley of Mexico.—Annie S. Peck in "The Christian Herald."

Opaque Windows.

The building contractor let loose some of his most emphatic phrases when he found that the man who had been hired to daub whitening all over the windows had not half done the job.

"That man doesn't seem to understand what the windows in a half-finished building are whitened for," he said. "We don't plaster them over with chalk to prevent the public from seeing the unfinished condition of the interior, but to keep the workmen from battering out the glass. Transparent glass looks just about as transparent as air to the man who is moving a wooden or iron beam, in a hurry, and he is likely to ram the end of it through an expensive window, but when the glass is coated with white it becomes visible, and the workmen hand their material in through the door."

One Benefit.

To top off an expensive education a young married woman of no particular ability in any one line took a course at a dramatic school. She never attempted to secure an engagement, so one day a close and candid friend of her husband asked what good all that training had done, anyhow.

"So far as I can see," he said, "that $300 you spent on Ethel's dramatic education has been practically thrown away."

"Oh, no, it hasn't," returned the husband mildly. "Her stage experience has taught her to dress in a hurry. Nowadays when I ask her to go any place with me she can change her clothes in ten minutes. It used to take over an hour."

BRIGHT GLASS AND SILVER

How to Care for Both With the Least Work and to Clean Them Without Injury.

There is nothing that repays one more for careful washing and drying than glass. First one must have a bowl of warm water softened with dissolved soap, which makes a very good lather. Too hot water should not be used, as it might crack the glass.

Have a bowl of clean water to rinse the glass in after washing it and if a very fine polish be desired on it have a third bowl of cold water with a little ammonia in it. Wash each article separately, rinse it well and dry with a soft glass cloth, which should be made of linen or little, fluffy particles will stick to the glass and spoil the appearance.

When it is washed and dried polish with a leather kept for the glass or with a silk handkerchief or with some soft tissue paper.

How to Clean Silver—Have an aluminum pan containing about two gallons of cold water. In this dissolve a piece of washing soda about the size of an egg and heat the solution to boiling point. Drop into this the silver to be cleaned, taking care to keep the whole at boiling point. Let the silver soak for three or four minutes. Lift out with a wire spoon or long-handled fork, wash in hot soap suds and wipe quickly with a perfectly dry towel. The pieces so cleaned will be as highly polished as when new.

This process will neither injure plated or solid ware. When all the silver is finished, if there are any pieces that do not look white and clear, rub them with a little dry whiting and a dry duster, then polish off with a soft, dry cloth.

To clean a copper kettle rub its surface with lemon skin and salt. Wipe the surface quickly and rub with a dry chamomile skin.

Windows become dimmed quickly where soft coal is used as fuel. A good way to clean them is to rub alcohol and polish with cheesecloth.

Coffee stains, even when cream has been put in the coffee, may be removed from the table linen by rubbing the spots with pure glycerin. Rinse afterward in lukewarm water.

Leather can be cleaned very well with milk. Dust the leather thoroughly with a soft cloth, then use another cloth dipped in sweet milk and the spots will be easily removed.

In turning out jellies, etc., from molds, wet with cold water the dish on which the jelly is to be placed; then the jelly will very easily slip out of the mold to the center of the dish.

When Food Burns.

"With too many irons in the fire some will burn." This old adage often proves too true to the busy housewife. She has forgotten to add water to the cooking food, and the odor of the burning meat, vegetable or fruit reminds her of the fact.

When this happens, quickly seize the pot from the range and immerse it in a vessel containing cold water.

The steam will escape from the outside instead of passing upward through the food.

Place the food in another pan and continue cooking or dress to serve.

The most critical person cannot detect a burnt taste in the food. This is a suggestion worth trying.

Planking a Fish.

One shad, with backbone removed; a few drops of onion juice, four heaping teaspoonfuls of butter, three tablespoonfuls of finely chopped parsley, one level tablespoonful of salt, a few grains of red pepper, two tablespoonfuls of tomato catsup, a few slices of lemon. Wipe the shad; place skin side down on hot oak plank; sprinkle with salt and red pepper; spread with butter; cook in hot oven for half an hour; spread with the chopped parsley and tomato catsup; garnish with seasoned hot mashed potatoes, pressed through a forcing bag and tube; also lemons, cut in shape of crescents and dipped in chopped parsley, and sprigs of parsley.

To Keep Flatirons From Rusting.

To keep flatirons from rusting when exposed to dampness, melt paraffin to the depth of half an inch in pans large enough to hold two or more irons. Wait until it is nearly cold and then put the irons in. In that way they will not sink to the bottom of the pan. Irons treated in this manner have not rusted when left six months in a closed house.

In case you have no paraffin, greasing the irons thickly and wrapping them in newspapers will serve the same purpose.

Dutch Toast.

To make Dutch toast, says an exchange, take slices of very stale or hard bread and toast the same in the oven until brown. Dip the slices in boiling water and set in the oven again until as crisp as desired.

Inexpensive Mattress Covering.

The inexpensive spring beds have no covers and often disfigure the mattress by streaks of rust. A cover of heavy, unbleached cloth, made large enough to lie down at sides and corners will save the mattress.

LYCEUM COURSE.

Of Six Numbers, Will Probably Be Put On.

The Board of managers of the Tabernacle have been wrestling nearly all summer with the problem of how to safely arrange for a course of attractions for the coming winter. As yet they have not been able to arrive at a solution. They believe that a course should be put on but it takes money to do it, and where the money is to come from has not yet been determined. Every effort to get the people interested in any plan has been futile. Friday the board adopted a plan to make all the full course absolutely free and a committee was named to solicit pledges for funds that would guarantee a free course, but Saturday, it was abandoned as being impracticable.

Afterwards it was determined to put the season tickets down to the extremely low figure of $1, the purchasers having the privilege of disposing of the tickets as they might choose. Yesterday the committee began canvassing the city to sell enough tickets to put on a full Massacre Averted.

According to the latest reports there was activity on the part of Americans living outside of Turkey to start a campaign in harmony with the other nations who are already in campaign with Turkey, but through the instrumentality of Dr. D. H. Erkiletian, of Fairview, Ky., President of the Society of Free Armenians, the leaders of this movement were convinced of the inadvisability of such a campaign under present conditions, consequently a great calamity and possibly a massacre was averted. Dr. Erkiletian has postponed his visit to Europe for the present.

LITTLE THINGS THAT COUNT WANTED NO MORE CHICKENS KEEPING THE LOOK OF YOUTH

Embryo Pianist Tells Why She Lives on a Farm in Preference to Teaching.

I will never forget the day my career ended. The dream of my life was to be a great pianist, and I awoke from it the day of my final examinations.

I believe what I have often heard said—that it is the little things which decide important steps in life for us. It was, after all, a little thing that decided me to turn farmer. Nothing more than a big, worn place in the sole of my shoe.

The day I noticed it I had walked about five miles, I suppose, visiting my pupils. Yet all I made that day (three of my pupils were only taking half-hour lessons at 25 cents a lesson) was not half enough to buy a good new pair of shoes. Brooding over the situation, I decided that the amount of physical energy and nervous force that I was expending in my work could be invested in probably a dozen other ways with better results.

It was right then and there that the thought popped into my mind.

It stayed there and developed into a fixed determination, with the result that within two months I was settled on the farm, where I have now lived more than for four years.

—St. Paul Dispatch.

MADE THE DOSE TOO LARGE

Young Doctor Meant to Earn His First Fee Honestly, But His Patient Objected.

"I had gotten my medical education by the hardest work," said the doctor, "and had hung out my shingle out west. I had expected to have to wait for the first patient, but not to have to wait so long. Finally, however, the call came. It was to a little house on the edge of town, and when I got there I found a woman sick with I had no idea what. I made out a 'pill prescription' for her, and for fear that I shouldn't earn my money, I wrote nearly the whole materia medica into it. Then I told her to send it to the nearest drug store and have it filled, and then I left. After an hour or two a small, shock-headed boy appeared at my office, which was over the bank and approached by outside stairs. Was I the doctor that had just been at his maw's house? His maw's house corresponded with the house I had just visited, so I was the doctor. 'Well,' he went on, 'my maw says, how you expect her to swallow that air pill? She ain't no hoss.'"

HARDTACK IN THE NAVY.

For some years hardtack has been pretty much cut out in the navy, although it makes a fine ration for hard work and active service. Several tons have been shipped down toward Cuba. Canned beans are good to stick to a marine's ribs and to keep out the bullets, so a few gross of cases of them have been rushed on to take the place of the little old-time navy beans which have to be cooked some hours to get them soft and well done. Canned beans are pretty good for marching.—New York Press.

CAUGHT NAPPING.

Mr. Bacon—What did you think of that hat Miss Style wore to church this morning?

Mr. Bacon—I didn't notice Miss Style's hat.

"It's funny you didn't see it. She sat directly in front of you."

"Well, suppose she did. Do you suppose I go to church to look at women's hats?"

"Well, dear, it's the same hat Miss Style wore to the theater night before last, and which you claimed obstructed your view of the stage."

MONEY FOR ESPIONAGE.

The amount spent on secret service by European governments last year was as follows: Austria-Hungary, $62,500; France, $40,000; Germany, $58,266; Great Britain, $50,000; Italy, $120,800. Russia spent $380,000 in 1910 "under direct order of the emperor," and for the present year appropriated $335,000 for miscellaneous police expenditure "not subject to publication."

ITS PROPER PLACE.

"I know a man who has a pet crow that he has taught how to swear."

"Then he ought to take it to the convention."

"Why?"

"Because they would find it handy for a caw cuss."

Cat's Liking for Dainty Meals Permanently Cured by Sudden Shocking of the Nerves.

That even a cat may experience sudden reformation is proved by the experiment thus reported by Mr. Gray, writes a Companion contributor.

I had been missing young chickens, one or two at a time, from the brood we were raising in the back yard. At last I discovered that our neighbor's cat was the thief. He was a big black fellow with a yellow stripe round his neck, and I did not want to cause his death, but I did desire very much to effect his reformation.

I watched him until I found out the time he usually slipped through the cross fence and came over for his supper of spring chicken. Then I brought a large cannon firecracker and sat down by an upstairs window that overlooked the chicken yard to wait for him.

Directly he appeared, cautiously looking to the right and left, waving his tail in anticipation. He picked out his prey and crouched. I lighted the fuse of the cracker and held it as long as it was safe. Just as he was ready to spring, I pitched it to the ground.

It struck not a foot behind him, and exploded as it struck.

That cat went into the air almost two feet, with a blood-curdling squall, and alighted running. It never came back. It lived to a good old age in the house next door, but it never came into my yard again, and I do not believe a plate of cream would have tempted it six inches beyond the fence.—Youth's Companion.

LOT OF TIME

Prisoner—If you'll only give me time, Your Honor, I'll reform.

Judge Knox—All right; I'll give you a year to start with.

SEES LIFE WORTH LIVING.

Milosav Mititch, of Semendria, Servia, was so alarmed at the prospect of wearing in his coffin the inevitable wreath of fresh flowers—a stigma of bachelorhood—that when he felt death approaching, not long ago, at the age of forty-six he sent for an old schoolmate, the only spinster in the town, and begged her to marry him. The ceremony was performed in what everyone believed to be the death chamber, but the care of Mme. Mititch, who acknowledged that she loved in silence for over thirty years, wrought a wonderful change in the invalid. He is now a confirmed match-maker, and has just organized a guild for promoting early marriages.

REAL ACHIEVEMENT.

Proud Papa—You see, our boy is of the pronounced artistic and intellectual type. Notice the delicacy of his features and the strong brain formation.

Family Friend—So you are going to be a great painter or a great poet, are you, my little lad?

Little Lad—No, I ain't, neither. I wantta grow up and be a White Hope.

HALLMARK OF FAME.

"Why d'ye spend so much care on the crease of your pants, hey?"

"It is important, dad, not to wear baggy trousers."

"Important is it? Why, you young cub, look here. Did you ever see a statue to a man who didn't wear baggy pants?"

THE REMEDY.

"Bragg is complaining about the inadequate heating of his house."

"Well, with all the talking he does in it, he ought himself to be able to keep it supplied with plenty of hot air."

Parisienne Are. Probably the Most Successful in This, But Many May Achieve It.

A Russian princess who has attracted much attention in Paris this winter, and who is considered one of the best-dressed women in that city, declares that nothing ages a woman's appearance so much as the old-fashioned method of pushing the flesh up above the corset.

How few women who have passed the "dangerous" age stop to think of this, yet is it not true? The settled look that comes with middle age is enhanced by a stiff-corseted figure above the waist.

Put money into a good corset, have it fitted sitting down, and in adjusting it be sure to pull it far down and gird it firmly round the hips.

Many women find as they grow older they must have their evening gowns cut high. This need not be done if care is taken to get a corset that has a low bust.

From Paris comes another hint about youthful looks. A famous dressmaker says that real lace ages women and should never be worn near the face.

The Parisienne has learned to fight age more successfully than most women because she pays heed to details that to others seem trivial. She makes a study of line, angle and color, and who will say the results are not worth the trouble?

It is every woman's duty to keep young looking. The worst way to do it is to feign youth through cosmetics or a kittenish manner!—Cleveland Leader.

HUMAN NATURE NOT SO BAD

New York Newspaper Man Observer With Pleasure the Aid Given the Blind.

If you doubt that human nature is kind, watch the ordinary passerby in his attitude toward a blind man. The office window man was riding in a Broadway open car the other day. The car was just barely moving, owing to some blockade or other, and kept about even pace with the pedestrians who crowded the pavements in their usual daily hustle.

The eye of the Office Window casually lit upon a blind man, walking alone, with that upright tilt of the head so common to the sightless. He tapped his stick incessantly before him and moved briskly until he neared the end of each block, with its hazardous curb. The car kept pace with him for seven blocks, and upon every block some one took charge of that blind man as he came to the curb, saw him safely over and said a pleasant word in parting.

One young man stayed near him for three blocks, steering him over the crossings each time. Probably the man with the tapping stick thought the friendly guide was a different man for every block. Or does his ear become so delicately attuned to voices that he fairly sees through hearing?

The Office Window man wondered if the smiles that so often light the faces of the blind come from the habit of thanking people who lend their friendly aid so many times a day?—New York Evening Mail.

Sleeping Sickness Discovery.

Reports received from the commission on Sleeping Sickness working in Rhodesia state that it has been proved beyond doubt that the tsetse fly, known as Glossina morsitans, as a carrier of the disease.

The commission was dispatched to Africa in consequence of the appearance of the disease in regions where Glossina palpalis (the species of tsetse fly, which up to that time had alone been regarded as a carrier of sleeping sickness,) was non-existent. The guilt of Glossina morsitans has been proved not only under laboratory conditions, but also in nature. Certain animals can act as the host of the virus without suffering thereby.

While palpalis is to be found only in narrow limits, morsitans is met with throughout Africa in wide areas, and the methods of migration and isolation hitherto employed will be practically impossible.

Consumption From a Monkey.

A report comes from Russia that Mme. Gvosdeska, prima donna at the Imperial theater, is ill from consumption, having been infected by her pet monkey. She fondled her pet when it suffered from bronchitis. Inasmuch as the monkey is suffering from tuberculosis, the Russian doctors decided that the disease had been caught from the monkey. It is probable that consumption would last considerably longer in the woman than in the monkey, and the chances are that the poor monkey while out of sorts really caught the consumption from the prima donna, who may have been infected long ago, the trouble, though, only recently showing to any serious extent.

Your Temper and Your Cat's.

Cats are of a high strung and sensitive nature, easily influenced by their surroundings. If you wish a fine tempered, nice little home loving cat you must possess some of these attributes yourself.

You cannot expect to have a very amiable animal if you are cranky all the time. Give the animal credit for being a good imitator. If you are vile tempered and given to striking the kitten, find no fault if the cat has a like manner and strikes people and smaller animals.—Dumb Animals.

LEAVES A TRAIL OF JOY

Efforts of Harrisburg (Pa.) Philanthropist Have Their Rewards in "Miles of Smiles."

Charles L. Boyer of Harrisburg, Pa., formerly of London, England, is devoting his life to making people smile—not people who are healthy, happy, or well to do, but poor people, invalids, children, and overworked mothers. Although busy all day he gives the greatest amount of pleasure with his automobile, which was presented to the people of Harrisburg, and built expressly for the purpose of giving free rides to those who are less fortunate. It accommodates a dozen adults or 20 children, folding steps at the rear, so that the children cannot hang on at the risk of life and limb; a big windshield and soft backs for the sick. It started its career as a joy giver a year ago and has covered hundreds of "miles of smiles," as Mr. Boyer himself likes to say. The automobile is only one of the many ways which he has of bringing joy and hope to those who have fared ill in life's journey. Another unique means of promoting happiness is the Home Invalids' union, which he organized about seven years ago and planned for invalids and shut-ins, who live in homes where they have little to give them pleasure or cheer.—Christian Herald.

WORKED A SHREWD SCHEME

Good Old Minister Didn't Know It, But Was Operating a "Confidence Game."

Bishop William F. McDowell of Chicago was condemning lotteries. "Even church lotteries," he said, "may result in harm. Did you ever hear about Doctor Thirdly's bazar?" "Doctor Thirdly got up a bazar for the benefit of the heathen, and one of the features of it was a guessing contest for a doll.

"Surely, you would say, merely a guessing contest over a doll's name—guesses, five cents; prize, the doll itself—surely such a contest could do no harm.

"But after the contest, Doctor Thirdly, a cunning leger upon his innocent and good face, said to a friend:

"The doll contest was extraordinarily successful. It brought us in $600."

"Ah," said the other, "you must have selected a very odd name. What was it?"

"Doctor Thirdly laughed. "Ho, ho! That's the point," he cried. "I didn't name it at all."

SIGHTSEEING IN CITIES.

I wandered up and down the streets. Somehow it wasn't just what I expected, and the crowd was worse and worse after I got into Washington street; and when I got tired of being jostled, it seemed to me as if the folks might get by if I waited a little while. Some of them looked at me, and so I stepped into an alleyway and waited and looked out. Sometimes there didn't seem to be so many passing, and I thought of starting, and then they'd begin again. "Twas a terrible stream of people to me. I began to think my new clothes and the buttons were all thrown away. I stayed there a good while. I began to be homesick. I thought it made no difference at all about my having those boughten buttons.—Whittier.

FLEET OF AEROPLANES.

As many as 120 aeroplanes will take part in the coming 1912 French army maneuvers, along with the unprecedented number of 140,000 men, or one-fifth of the total army. The aeroplanes comprise 20 sections, or "escadrilles," of eight aeroplanes each. At present the war department is engaged in laying out the plans for the maneuvers, in which the aeroplanes will make all the combinations which appear to be useful.

GENEROUS.

ALL GRIST FOR THE BRIDE

Other Women in the House Have Small Chance of Receiving Brides That Are Sent Home.

An uptown woman who nearly got stalled in a Ninth street car with a bundle of merchandise gave this reason for carrying home her own parcels, according to the Philadelphia Public Ledger.

"There is a prospective bride in our boarding-house," she said. "Everything in the dry-goods line is grist to the mill of the woman about to be married. Other women who have the misfortune to live in the same house shop under difficulties. The only way they can insure the enjoyment of their own purchases is to carry them home.

"If the things are delivered the bride snaps them up. Possibly she has no real shopping propensities, but circumstances combine to make her a thief. Servants bring to her room all parcels of whatever size and shape that come to that front door. So many of the things do belong to her that to read the label or listen to what the delivery boy says is considered superfluous exertion. And the bride is equally disdainful of a preliminary examination. Egotically she rips off wrappers and digs into contents.

"Yesterday I heard her raising the roof because a certain shop had sent her six pairs of black silk stockings, instead of the pink, blue and tan she had ordered. After she had sent the stockings back and had the money refunded I discovered the stockings were mine. I cannot afford to contribute these parcels to the bride's wardrobe, so I am carrying them home."

FOUND AN ECONOMICAL PAIR

Most Joyous Occasion of Life Failed to Make Them "Loosen Up," to Young Clergyman's Dismay.

A clergyman in Cherryvale tells Mrs. Moffett that when he was a struggling young preacher and a marriage fee looked like several square meals to him, he was called upon to officiate at the wedding of a wealthy young farmer to the daughter of another farmer, also very wealthy and widely known in the county. The night of the wedding was a stormy one and the train to the little country station was two hours late, so the preacher hired a rig and drove the entire 12 miles, getting there just in time to miss supper. The wedding was a brilliant affair and after the ceremony the groom called the minister aside and told him how much he appreciated his coming through the storm and handed him a $2 bill—not enough to pay the team hire. As the preacher sat stunned, gazing at the money, the bride's father came in and the groom left. "How much did he give you?" asked the father. "Only two dollars," replied the preacher. "Why, that is a shame," exclaimed the father. "After all your trouble, too. He's terrible close with money. Don't say a word to any one, but take this." And as the old man slipped away the preacher, much touched, opened his hand and found a $1 bill.—Kansas City Star.

Honesty Increasing.

On her return from marketing, the young matron of the upper West side said to a caller: "I believe the sense of honesty is increasing in New York, at least in this locality. This morning I called the attention of a salesman to a small mistake he had made in giving me change, the mistake being in my favor. The proprietor, who was standing near, said to me: 'You're honest. You'll get along all right.' Not so many years ago the thought that seemed far too prevalent in this country was that only some clever form of dishonesty could 'get along all right.' The merchant who could trick a customer was supposed to be the smart fellow, and it was assumed an honest person was sure to get the little end of everything. I am delighted to find even one man who realizes that honesty is actually indispensable to success, and it is especially pleasing to find him in a place where I can deal with him regularly."—New York Press.

Tantalum Pens.

Pens for writing purposes are being manufactured today in Germany by a process which is exciting some curiosity. The trouble found with steel pens is that they oxidize easily and the ink sticks to them. This fault is not to be found with gold pens; but, on the other hand, these are too flexible to be entirely satisfactory. Moreover, in order to form a point suitable for writing purposes, the material of that part of the pen has to be mixed with some hard metal like iridium and this operation is both complicated and expensive. This new pen is of tantalum and comes to the manufacturer in the form of a black powder. The pen that is made from this has the tenacity of steel and the flexibility of gold.—Harper's Weekly.

Appropriate.

Gazing at a group of nine children gathered about a small stoop, an old lady called one of the little girls. "Are all of these children your sisters and brothers?" she asked. "Yes, mum," replied the youngster. "What is the largest one named?" "Maxie, mum." "And what do you call the smaller?" "Minnie, mum."
